

Journal of Sports Therapy

Mission: JST aims to be an internationally recognised, scholarly, peer reviewed journal for sports therapists and other healthcare and research communities in order to advance musculoskeletal and sports related best practice.
Goals	Objectives
1 JST will expand access to evidence and best practice via internet-based resource	Increase awareness of JST online to improve website traffic Develop a plan to staff and implement web-based initiatives Improve accessibility to Journal manuscripts / articles Increase availability of online media
2 JST content will advance and influence the diverse practice of sports therapists and others in the musculoskeletal healthcare and research communities.	Increase awareness of the value of different types of research to Practice Develop new content based on advances in musculoskeletal practice Develop and respond to new opportunities for innovative delivery of material
3 JST will seek to objectively examine the effectiveness and utility of various interventions within exercise and sports related healthcare.	Disseminate information to all constituents in a timely, and effective manner Disseminate information to Editorial Review Board members in a timely, frequent, and effective manner
4 JST will expand its subscriber, reader, author, editorial, and promotional bases.	Expand and develop products and a marketing plan for consumers of sports Therapy Establish links with international partnerships Establish links with research grant/funding recipients about submitting manuscripts to JST Initiate and expand subscriptions to UK and international sport therapy (and similar) education programmes Establish relationship with others about JST